

Marcin Krzykowski

MSc, PSA
Actuary

CURRENT RESPONSIBILITY

Marcin is a senior consultant with the Warsaw, Poland, office of Milliman. He joined the firm in 2008.

EXPERIENCE

Marcin specializes in life insurance. He has more than 10 years experience in the actuarial profession. Prior to joining Milliman, he worked at the Warsaw office of Ernst & Young. Before that, he was chief actuary at Aspecta and Gerling (now merged into HDI Gerling), where he was responsible for the actuarial department, product development, software development, and reinsurance.

Before joining Milliman, Marcin was involved in a wide range of projects in Poland and other Central and Eastern European markets, including Slovenia, the Czech Republic, Hungary, Ukraine, and Russia. His experience covers life and P&C insurance and pension fund business, including the following:

- embedded and appraisal values
- M&A assignments including financial modeling and due diligence
- business planning, financial projections
- product development work
- appointed actuary work
- risk management and Solvency II
- market analysis
- administration systems

Marcin is fluent in English and German.

PROFESSIONAL DESIGNATIONS

- Fellow, Polish Society of Actuaries, Poland

PRESENTATIONS AND PUBLICATIONS

Marcin is an author or coauthor of multiple publications on the Polish insurance market.

EDUCATION

- MSc, Mathematics, University of Gdańsk, Poland

